

Colonial Administration in India caused a new Cultural Heritage:

Dr. R.M.Shadaksarayya

Hungund: 'Colonial administration in India causes a new cultural heritage and India witnessed many educational, social, religious changes due to the arrival of Britishers, said retired professor, D.R.M.Shadaksaryya.

He noted this while he was speaking as the inaugurator of one day national seminar on 'Colonial Administration in India' organized by V.M.K.S.R.Vastrad Arts, Science and V.S.Bellihal Commerce College, Hungund in association with the department of History and the Department of Archives Bangalore and Regional Office, Dharawad. The seminar is helpful in knowing many valuable ideas. Colonial administration had many negative aspects yet it had brought many social reforms like eradication of child marriage, sati system, he added.

Before starting the seminar, one minute mourning on the death of an eminent historian Dr.S.Shettar was held.

The retired professor of the Department of History and Archaeology Dr.Iranna K. Pattar did keynote address. He felt that colonial administration brought many social changes as well as conflicts. Indians fought collectivity against the Britishers and gained freedom on 15th August 1947.

Dr. Shiladhar Mugali, the Chairman and Professor of History and Archaeology KUD, released the proceeding of the previous seminar 2019 and he felt the need of good research papers in the proceedings.

Dr. K.L.N. Murthy, the Professor and Chairman of the Department of History and Archaeology Rani Channamma University, Belagavi PG Center Vijayapur, said that Christian missionaries started education institutions in India and contributed a lot for the development of education.

Shri B.M.Hokrani the Honorary Secretary of V.M.V.V. Sangha Hungund. Presided over the seminar. The principal Prof.Shashikala Math welcomed and introduced the college.
