COMMUNITY SERVICES

- Community services is work done by a person or group or people that benefits others. It often done near the area where you live, so your own community reaps the benefits of your work. You do not get paid to perform community service,
- Community service can help any group of people in need: Children, senior citizens, people with disabilities, English language learners, and more. It can also help animals, such as those at a shelter, and it can be used to improve places, such as a local park, historic building, or scenic area as well. Community service often organized through a local group, such as a place of worship, school or non-profit organization.

Examples of Community Services

There are Hundred of ways to participate in community service, depending on your skills and interests. Some common community service examples include:

1. Working with School Children: Tutoring children after school, collecting school supplies to donate, planting a school garden.
2. Working with Senior Citizen: Visiting residents of a retirement center, delivering meals to senior citizens, driving them to appointments.
3. Improving the Environment: Holding a recycling contest, planting trees, creating a new trail at a nature center.

4. Helping low-income People: Passing out food at a soup kitchen, collecting used clothes to be donated, making first aids kits for homeless shelters.

Benefits of Community Services

- Have the opportunity to help others: This is often the most important benefit of community service. Participating in it gives you the opportunity to know that you are improving someone's life and making your community better, and you get to see the direct impact of your work.
- Gain hands-on experience: You can learn a lot of skills while performing community service such as construction, painting, customer service, and medical skills. You can also include your community service work on your resume.
- Learn about different careers: Some times you can focus your community service in a field you may want to work in down the road. Some examples of this include volunteering at an animal shelter if you are thinking about becoming a veterinarian, working at a hospital if you want to be a doctor, or volunteering in a museum if you like history. The experience gained from community service can help you get an internship or job in the future, and it also gives you the opportunity to see how much you would really enjoy a particular career.
- Personal growth: Doing community service has personal benefits as well. It often makes participants more organized, responsible, and compassionate, which are all good qualities to have, as well as qualities that both colleges and employers like to see in applicants.

- Gain new friends: A final benefit is that you can meet a lot of great people while doing community service. Community service is often done in groups, so it's easy to make friends with the people you are working with. You may also become friends with the people you are helping, especially if you volunteer at the same place regularly.

IMPORTANCE OF COMMUNITY SERVICES

- ❖ Personal Identity
- ❖ Spiritual Growth
- ❖ Moral Development
- ❖ Develops ability to work with others
- ❖ Enhancement of leadership and communication skills
- ❖ Leads to greater acceptance of diversity

Types of Community Services

Direct service: Student interaction involves people, the environment or animals. For example, this can appear as one-on-one tutoring, developing a garden in partnership with refugees, or working in an animal shelter.

Indirect service: Though students do not see the recipients of indirect service, they have verified their actions will benefit the community or environment. For example, this can appear as re-designing a non-profit organization's website, writing original picture books to teach a language, or nurturing tree seedlings for planting.

Advocacy: Students speak on behalf of a cause or concern to promote action on an issue of public interests. For example, this may appear as initiating an awareness campaign on hunger, performing a play on replacing bullying with respect, or creating a video on sustainable water solutions.

Research: Students collect information through varied sources, analyze data, and report on a topic of importance to influence policy or practice. For example, they may conduct environmental surveys to influence their school, contribute to a study of animal migration, compile effective means to reduce litter in public spaces, or conduct social research by interviewing people on topics such as homelessness, unemployment or isolation.

OBJECTIVES OF COMMUNITY SERVICES

- To expose students to people who are at a disadvantage (socially, medically, economically etc.)
- To help the students to realize that they can make a difference and give them tools to do so.
- To develop awareness and better understanding of communities they live in.
- To attain skills in community participation.

- To motivate the students to learn and serve the society.
- To make access to quality education and skill upgradation.
- To sensitize the students to the living conditions of people who are around them.
- To help students to realize the stroke realities of the society.
- To make students socially responsible citizens who are sensitive to the needs of the disadvantaged sections.
- To help students to initiate develop mental activities in the community in coordination with public and government authorities.
- To make students aware of their inner strength and help them to find new/out of box solutions to the social problems.

Advantages of Community Services

- Connects you to others
- Helps you make new friends and contacts
- Increases your social and relationship skills
- Good for your mind and body
- Increases self-confidence
- Combats depression
- The happiness effect
- Can advance you career
- Can teach you valuable job skills
- Brings fun and fulfillment to your life

Disadvantages of Community Services

- Commitment
- Emotional involvement
- Frustration
- Lack of pay
- Impact on health
- Create feelings of stress, anxiety and frustration.
- Your life being neglected
- Skills gained may not be as practical as those from paying work.

Swachh Bharat Abhiyan

Swachh Bharat Abhiyan is also called as the clean India Mission or clean India drive or Swachh Bharat Campaign. It is a national level campaign run by the Indian Government. This campaign involves the construction of latrines, promoting sanitation Programs in the rural areas, cleaning streets, roads and changing the infrastructure of the country to lead the country ahead.

Prime minister Narendra Modi on 145th birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi on 2nd of October in 2014 at Rajghat, New Delhi.

We participated in Swachh Bharat Abhiyan by serving the locality with clean lines drive. We cleaned up the streets and roads near by the girls hostel of V. M School We cleaned the school infrastructure, grass lawns , sports ground and parking area of the school campus. In the end of the day, there was a lecture by specialist on health awareness we attended their lecture.

The refreshment was also provided as the students by the conductors of cleanliness drive.

Objectives of Swachh Bharat Abhiyan

1. To encourage the people of society to keep their surroundings clean.

2. To generate mass awareness on cleanliness and hygiene amongst students and staff members.

10. To encourage cost-effective sanitation efforts
11. To develop community managed sanitation systems
12. To focusing on scientific solid & liquid waste management systems.
13. To create a positive impact on gender and promote social inclusion.

Dengue Awareness Programme

I gave the lecture to aware the students in hostels in the presence of warden sir, Vidyadhar Hunagund. I told the students that symptoms of dengue include skin rash, high fever, headache, muscle and joint pain, nausea and vomiting, In severe cases there is serious bleeding and shock, which can be life threatening.

We can protect ourself, both indoors and outdoors, especially during the day. Before stepping out, the use of personal repellants like good knight fabric roll on can prevent mosquito bites.

When at home, use household level repellants like good night active+. Students actively participated and listen the lecture sincerely.

Objectives of this Program

- ✓ To impact knowledge related to dengue, knowledge related to Aedes mosquito.
- ✓ To promote the recognition of dengue hemorrhagic fever and its symptoms.
- ✓ To educate people to keep their Surroundings clean.

Prevention of Environment to Dengue

- ✓ Cover the water tanks
- ✓ Avoid accumulation of water in walkways, containers etc.
- ✓ Use sand in potted plants
- ✓ Leave bottles and other containers upside down

- ✓ Remove water from tyres
- ✓ Dispose garbage and waste correctly
- ✓ Keep the trash closed.

Voter Awareness Activity

The voting awareness and an article of its importance. It provides information about voting and how to be a responsible voter. A lot of people want to vote, but many are not aware of its need and how to cast it. This is where voting awareness comes into play. The idea of voting awareness is to help people understand the importance of voting. Voting is an important way for voters to control their government. It is a method for citizens to express what they want from their leaders by raising awareness about voting. This will lead to better governance and what everyone wants- a democracy that is free, fair and representative.

Voting helps citizens become more involved in their government and keep it accountable. To vote, you must meet specific requirements. In addition to voting, there are few laws that ensure fair elections around the world.

We told the students that your vote can play an important part in making the change. If you are unhappy with the current government, you can vote for a better one not voting could result in the same party ruling for another five years. We the end of the day if the country is struck with a bad government, it's the people to blame for voting wrong or for not voting at all.

Our one vote can change the government, so eligible should be enrolled as a voter and should elect the right person.

Objectives of Voter Awareness

- To aware the students about the process of voter registration
- To strengthen democratic values by increasing voter education
- To educate citizens of a democracy with basic information about participating in elections
- To tell the students that are voting is not only our right, it is our responsibility

Tree Plantation

Tree plantation is good for the environment, everyone knows that trees are the source of oxygen. They take carbon dioxide and release the oxygen which the survival of living beings is not possible on earth.

We took part in the tree plantation drive, In this program, we planted trees at public places and motivated people the people of the society to grow more trees. We told them that trees Absorbs various harmful gases including Sulphur dioxide and carbon monoxide. The growing amount of air pollution caused by the smoke emitted by vehicles and factories can be controlled only if we plant more and more plants.

We also told them that trees offer several other benefits. Trees provide fruits. They maintain bio diversity. Now a days trees are good source of environment.

Objectives of Tree Plantation

- ❖ To increase forest cover in the city
- ❖ To reduce green house gases and fight for climate change
- ❖ To improve the quality of the natural environment
- ❖ To motivate other people of society for planting trees
- ❖ To reduce soil erosion and effect of flooding
- ❖ To increase the sea level
- ❖ To beautify the areas for scenic beauty
- ❖ To reduce the surface run off discharge and checking soil erosion along the embankments.
- ❖ To reduce the temperature and increase humidity
- ❖ To reduce pollution.

Impact of Community Service on me

Community Service has put a great impact on me and my personally & acquired leadership qualities and democratic attitude. I became more responsible. I got aware of many social problems.

Overall, it changed my view point to see all the world. We are a part of community. We should give our time and efforts to make it better place to live.

Community service activities helps to define my values, experience empathy, develop social skills, and learn about community. Volunteering can also open doors to various career opportunities after completing higher education.
